Enjoy an authentic Canadian Camp weekend!

Join us for some summer/fall fun!

- * canoeing, kayaking, hiking, climbing
- ropes, archery
- * arts and crafts
- * campfires

Accommodation: 2 nights in rustic, heated cabins on comfortable bunks with foam mattresses. Bring your own sleeping bag or bedding. Cabins are self-contained with toilets and showers.

Meals: The five meals and two snacks, included in the rates, are great and are served in the dining hall. Service is family style, which means that table setting and clearing of dishes are your responsibility. Snacks (no meal on Friday) will be served at 8:45 p.m. in the dining hall on Friday evening.

Getting there: Arrive anytime after 6:00 p.m. on Friday. The phone number for Wanakita is 1-800-387-5081 or (705) 457- 2132. (directions attached)

Parking: Please park at the entrance in front of the office. No parking at cabins.

What to bring: Appropriate clothes for the weather. It could be warm during the day, but does cool down at night. Bring a sleeping bag or bedding, pillow, towel, toiletries, camera, torch. Bring your own drinks (there is NO drinking in the dining hall, unless we have our own dinning area).

Registration: This weekend is open to all CLEE members, their families and friends. Please complete and forward the attached registration form by September 1st with your cheque, e-transfer or money order made out to Margi Huff.
